THE REPUBLICANS IN A HOLE.

The platforms of the Republican party abound with high sounding paragraphs about the consideration that is due to the American workingman. To be sure nobody who has contrasted their professions with their actions has been deceived by such glittering platitudes, but many good men who have not given the matter much thought have been de-

Never in its history has the Republithis way. When the Senate adjourned in Oc ober the first business on the calendar was the eight hour labor bill endorsed by the various labor organizations. When the reading of the Force bill had been finished under the rules the next thing in order was over from last session. The "unfinished business" proved awkward to the Reworking men of the country, should take its rightful turn. That was a check the growth of the Alliance North and East.

His language was very temperate and 27th District—Anson and Union—G. C. McLarty, Monroe; dem. 28th District—Stanly and Cabarrus—Eli take its rightful turn. That was a clever move on the part of the Democrats. It gave the Republicans the alternative of showing their sympathy with the labor world or brutally brushing aside its interests for a purely partizan and sectional advantage.

Upon an inquiry from Mr. BUTLER, of South Carolina, the presiding officer ruled that the laying aside of the Labor bill dropped it from the leading time would confirm the charge someposition to the last place on the calendar. But that didn't matter. The Force bill had to go and go it did. The workingmen were insulted and their petitions ignored.

The best article anywhere against the Force bill was written by Master Workman Powderly, and there has been no demand for the Force bill by the working men. To have their pet measure displaced and put at the foot of the calendar to advance a measure which they oppose, is very galling to them. In Washington and elsewhere the working men have held meetings denouncing the action, and they are very indignant and aggrieved.

The organized mechanics insulted and indignant, the farmer's organizations in open revolt, and the consumers in active rebellion, the Republican party seems to be in a hole.

TO PATRIOTIC ALLIANCEMEN. Presidency.

We publish to day an appeal "To Patriotic Alliancemen" from the pen of Dr. R. L. BEALL and other leading Alliancemen of Caldwell county. Attenconfront the usefulness and harmony of the Alliance. It is a document worthy of the consideration of every member of the Alliance. The protest against advice to members of the Legislature to violate their sacred pledges is timely and wise. No honorable man will be false to his pledge made in the convention bill during its discussion in the House, that nominated him, or made while the proportion against it in the West alone was much greater than this.

Craven——R. Cumberland—T. M. Sutton, A. D. McGill, Fayetteville; dems Currituck—John J. Morse, d. on the stump. If he had taken any oh ligations in the Alliance or any other secret order that would prevent his carrying out his public pledges, it was his duty then and there to state that such was the case. Failing to do so, he is bound by every instinct of honor to be true to his pledge given to the people. and if he should betray it he would be guilty of an infamous crime, and would forfeit the respect and confidence of all honorable men. There is not a man of them that would do this. We know most of them and they are honorable and trustworthy. They "tote their own skillets," and are not to be influenced by any individual of less importance than angel 'Gabriel.'

X THE ALLIANCE ACTS WISELY AND PATRIOTICALLY.

The Farmers' Alliance has done many good things, but never anything so wise and so patriotic as its enthusiastic passage of resolutions protesting against the passage of the Force bill by Congress. The resolutions appear in to-day's CHRONICLE and they speak trumpet-tongued in protest against the deep damnation of that

The Alliance has done nobly and will be applaude 1 for thus putting its foot upou the head of this sectional snake. Sectionalism would always be kept alive if such a measure should become a law. and the Alliance shows its desire to put an end to that bane by denouncing the agency that would continue it.

All honor to the National Alliance!

X AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Alliance Takes Strong Ground Against Its Passage.

OCALA, Fla , Dec. 3, 1890 - Delegate W. S. McAllister, of Mississippi, yesterday introduced in the meeting of the Farmers' Alliance the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopt-

Whereas, the President of the United States, in his annual message to Congress, recommends and urges the immediate passage of the measure known as and Postal Money Orders should be made the Lodge election bill; and whereas, payable to "THE CHRONICLE PUB. Co." the said bill involves radical revolution in the election machinery of the United States, both State and National, and its passage will be fatal to the autonomy of States and cherished liberties of citizens; and whereas said bill is partizan in spirit, and will be partizan in its applic. tien, thus re-vitalizing the gory ghost of sensational estrangements; and whereas, in holy war we have declared against sectionalism, and the firesides of farmers of the North, East, South and West, are citadels around which the heaviest battles are being fought; and to the end that victory my crown our cru-sade, let fraternity and unity reign;

RESOLVED, By the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union of Amerca in national council assembled that we do most solemnly protest against the passage of the sald Lodge election bill; and we most earnestly petition our Senrors to employ all fair and legal means o defeat this unparriotic measure which can result in nothing but evil to our common and beleved country.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That a copy of these preambles and resolutions be forwarded to each S-nator in Congress." Mr. McAllister took the floor in supcan party given to the workingmen such port of the resolutions and at the end of a shock as on Tuesday. It happened a strong speech moved their adeption As he sat down there was a stillness and hush in the convention which foreboded a storm, and everybody expected | 20th District-Durham, Orange, Person it to burst from the Western or Northwest delegations; but no storm came.

After a few moments of suspense, Delgate Deming, of Pennsylvania, arose. He regarded the introduction of the resolution as untimely; that there was the "unflnished business" which came largely prevalent at the North a feeling that the Farmers' Alliance was a South ern organization, its members being sat urated with Southern sentiments, and publicans. Mr. GORMAN urged that the that the passage of these resolutions eight hour bill, so important to the would strengthen this opionion and

His language was very temperate and conciliatory, and a ripple of applause greeted the close of his speech.

President McGrath, of the Kansas State Alliance, moved the adoption of the resolutions without reference to any committee and without debate, which | 32d District-Stokes and Forsyth-John was lost.

times heard that the Farmers' Alliance is a partisan body. The Alliance, he said, is fast getting a grip in the west in localities where Republican sentiment is strong. The action of the National body would tend to throw it into political disrepute and stop its expansion over the States of the West and Northwest.

President Hall, of Missouri State Alliance, moved that the resolutions be tabled, but after a short interval, in which there were several short but temperate speeches in favor of their passage, he moved to table his original motion, which was carried. The question then recurred on McAllister's motion to adopt the resolutions, and it was carried unanimously amid wildest enthusiasm.

REPUBLICAN PROTESTS AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

(From the St. Paul Pioneer Press.) The McKinley Bill has cost us a majority in Congress. The Lodge Elections Bill, if its passage is insisted upon, is more than likely to cost us the

(From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.) The country does not want this measure. Public sentiment has asserted itself formally and definitely on this question, and vigorously and unqualifiedly condemned the project. As we look at tion is called to some of the perils which | the matter, the Election Bill did not enter so squarely and directly into the canvass as the tatiff did, but that it was a factor is undoubted, and that it contributed, in some degree at least, towards bringing about the Republican defeat is, in our view, a proposition the truth of which is not open to question. Two-thirds of the Republican newspapers of the country opposed the bill during its discussion in the House.

AS TRUE AS HOLY WRIT.

(New York World.)

Senator VANCE, of North Carolina, is too able a man and too experienced a legislator and debater to be spared from Congress. He may not agree with the farmers at all points, but he will do them more good in the Senate than any new man whom they can elect.

MR. HARRISON says the Force bill is not sectional. Mr. Longe, who intro duced it, says that it is intended to gecure a "fair vote" in the South. Mr. HARRISON knows that it is a sectional measure and if he had been honest in saying so his message would have been entitled to more respect.

It Will Reach Him in Nov '92.

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat - Rep.) The Republicans met a big defeat a few weeks ago on account of their connection with the tariff and force bills, but the news of this circumstance apparently has not yet reached the White

It is one of the best remedies ever offered. People throughout this and many other States are calling for and using Germeteur.
